

Classes and Bible Studies Starting this Fall!

Sunday Morning Classes at 9:45am

Bad Girls and Boys of the Bible | We're exploring how God uses imperfect people for His purposes—like a Hebrew with a speech impediment, a prostitute, a persecutor of believers, and a tax collector. Despite flaws and weaknesses, God still chooses us. This class is hosted by Little Bacon in Room 020.

Faith | Elder Neil Stenger will lecture on this essential topic through October. This is hosted by McClung in Room 026.

Revelation | This study by Dr. W. Robert Godfrey (Ligonier Ministries) offers encouragement and hope for every generation. Originally written to a church wrestling with the tension between Christ's reign and life in a fallen world, its message still speaks powerfully to believers today. This class is hosted by the 49rs in Room 115.

Children's Sunday Classes | Children ages 3 (who are potty-trained) through 5th grade meet on the 2nd floor using The Biggest Story curriculum. Infants and toddlers are cared for in the 1st-floor Childcare Center with Bible stories, music, crafts, and play.

Youth Bible Study | Students ages 6th-12th grade meet for Bible study in Rm. 015 across from the Multipurpose Room.

For those who attend the 9:45am worship service, there is table discussion related to the morning message for youth in 6th-12th grade, college and young adults, and mixed ages.

Weekday Classes and Groups

College and Young Adult Dinner & Bible Study | Starting Wednesday, Sept. 10th, join us weekly for dinner at 5 PM followed by Bible study at 6 PM in the Fellowship Hall. We study scripture using the Discovery Bible Study method.

The Circle | This women's group meets the 4th Tuesday of every month at 1pm in Rm 114 and is studying are currently studying Angels Standing Guard by Douglas Connelly.

Men's Bible Study | Meeting Tuesdays at 7pm in Rm. 015, this group is studying Paul's Letter to the Romans through a verse-by-verse video series by Dr. W. Robert Godfrey. This study inspires believers to boldly proclaim, “I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes.”

Hebrews Women’s Study | This group meets Thursday nights in Rm. 020 beginning Sept. 11 6:30-8pm for 10 weeks. In this verse-by-verse study of the Book of Hebrews, Jen Wilkin shows how God “provided something better for us” in Jesus Christ (Heb. 11:40). Using stories of Old Testament heroes and practices, the author of Hebrews reveals the new covenant’s superiority and how Jesus fulfills every promise.

Table Talk | This Women's Bible Study meets in Rm. 114 on Fridays from noon- 2pm. This small group values our Jewish roots and studies Scripture verse by verse. This year, we’re studying the Book of 2 Samuel using devotions from Tabletalk magazine (Ligonier Ministries). Each week begins with a potluck lunch, prayer, and sharing. All are encouraged to read and join the discussion.

For more information about any of our classes or studies, please email Pastor Jamie at j.swope@firststandcalvary.org.